

“Kalakshaja - 2018”

Whenever we hear something like a 'fest', we immerse ourselves into the thoughts of alluring colorful lights, unstoppable music, DJs and VJs, and even savoring foods. We tend to bend our hunches towards competitions, huge crowds, and cultural diversities which indeed gifts you a massive package of memories. Knowing people, working with them and understanding them is like the crux of every fest. Interactions with different ideological personalities, add a bit more of the spice to your experience.

“Kalakshaja 2018” was one such platform for the students of GDCRI and several dental colleges from all over Karnataka. The state level intercollegiate fest arranged on the 4th and 5th December 2018, as a part of the Diamond Jubilee Celebrations of GDCRI, Bangalore in association with the GDC Alumni Association featured an array of events, those including both onstage performances like Group dance, Fashion show while also giving a dias for the off stage events like Rangoli, mehendi etc., were conducted. Colleges from across the state including GDC Bellary, KGF College of Dental Sciences and Coorg institute of Dental Sciences, JSS Dental College, Mysore to mention a few.

Under the dynamic leadership of the cultural chariperson Dr. M. N Padmini and under the guidance of Dr K Nagesh, the event saw a massive turnout from several colleges both, from the city as well as the rest of the state. The two day event showcased judges for each event from their respective fields of expertise. The cultural extravaganza ended with GDCRI, Bangalore bagging the overall championship.
